Dear Broth Finley I have at last recd what I have bin looking for since — Conference, a letter from you! in which you informed me that you have made arrangements to publish the Life & Times of J. B. Finley, I am pleased with the arrangements that you have made for the publication. There can be no risk on that plan, the Book must and will sell, be sure that you have those Pictures in it, that you spoke of in your letter

My Health is usually good! Brother Ellsworth my Colleague is a very clever — fellow, his Talents as a Preacher Moderately fair upon the whole he makes an agreeable Colleague, we have some prosperity on the Circuit, and are looking for better times I learn with pleasure that you are succeeding in ~~the~~ Clinton Street May your Board abide in strength I cannot now say positively when I can visit you but will be happy to do so when opportunity offers your Old Friend here would all be Glad to see you & gang also

I recd. a letter from Brother Inskeep yesterday in which, he wished me to remember him to you, he wishes us to visit him at the worlds Fair at New York next May "What do you think of this" "Will you go" I would love to visit this London of America, Before closing, <sup>I must</sup> acknowledge that undiscovered interest that you have <sup>ever</sup> taken in my welfare, I hope you may never have cause to regret your exhibition of kindness toward me. Wishing you all success in this life and the life to come I subscribe "My Self yours" "World With Our End",
